ABOUT THE FEBRUARY CONCERT

Some musicians strike a chord right in the heart of the listener. Mohan Ayyar belongs to that tribe. His February Synthesizer concert was a splendid performance; an amalgam of maturity of perception and an exposition of the classicism of Carnatic music on a western instrument.

Starting with a brisk Kambhoji varnam, he rendered a couple of shorter compositions which included varavallabha in Hamsadwani and sabapathi in Abhogi and majestic pieces like Kamakshi swarajathi in Bhairavi and Mariveri in Lathangi, before proceeding to a lively Ragam Thanam Pallavi in the ragam Hemavathi. It was very well elaborated and ended with a rapturous swaramalika in the ragams, Purnasadjam, Saramathi, Sahana & Behag.

The RTP was followed by a beautiful Ranjani Mala by Tanjore Sankara Iyer. The concluding thillana in Desh and few other short pieces like vishweswara and Kurinji Mangalam by Bhadrachala Ramadas were delightfully absorbing and an apt finale to an evening of enchanting music.

Murali Kumar on Violin and Sridhar Chari on Mridangam provided outstanding support.
